CLASS SONG

Words by Claire Dale — Music by Dolores Collett

Dear old M. V. High, to you we'll e'er be true.
Dear old High of romance and mem'ries all of you;
Friends we've made we must now part from with a sigh,
Still remain the mem'ries of days gone by.

Chorus:
M. V. High, tho' we must depart,
On the sea of life we will row and onward go;
Tho' we roam over sea or foam,
We will ne'er forget the years we spent in M. V. High.

Clouds of doubt now quickly haste away,
For our hopes and wishes now all have come to stay.
We, the Class, who greet the dawn of day
Will remember all who helped us on our way.
Chorus:

As we pass thru life's portals grand,
Be not sad or gloomy, give all a helping hand;
When we reach our cherished goal of fame,
May we praise the school whose memories remain.
Chorus:

THE class of '28 will long remember this happy year. The star event, our colorful Junior Carnival, was held in the school for the first time and was a great success. We were sorry to lose our valuable Class President, Helen Norman, at mid-term, to the Senior Class.

The Purple and Gold has been well represented in all school activities:—in the Scholarship Society, in Athletics, in the Operetta, and on Student Body Night. The next big day on our calendar is the Junior-Senior Picnic at Santa Cruz.

KATHERINE SMITH, '28.

PERRY MCPHEETERS, President
RUTH MCDANIELS, Vice-President
ITSUME KAWAMOTO, Secretary-Treasurer
PERRY MCPHEETERS, Gov. Board Rep.

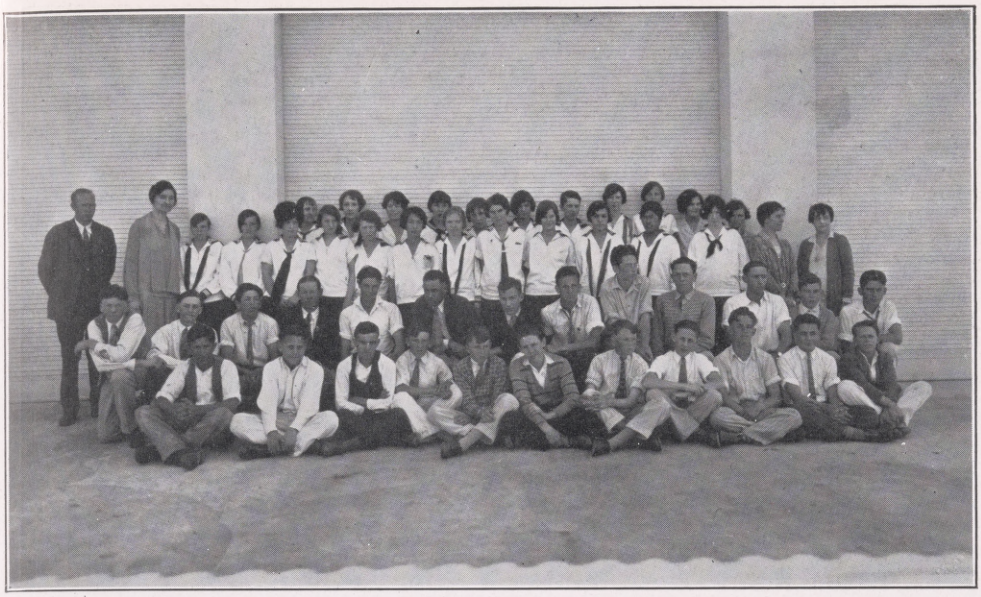
HURRAH! Juniors at last! and it didn't take so very long. The first half of the year we were High Sophomores, but now we are Low Juniors and have the privilege of being Upper-classmen.

We have had a full year of school activities, in which most of our class took part. Several parties were given while we were High Sopohomores; and when we became Juniors, we helped in the plans for the Carnival. The Junior Carnival was a great success because it was planned and carried out with carefulness and enthusiasm. We are now working for the Junior-Senior picnic.

A number of our boys were on the various teams that won a good many of the games. We are also represented in the Operetta. Three of us made the Scholarship Society.

ROSE BUTLER, '28½.



Sophomores

HERBERT MOORE, President — CHARLES DE CURTONI, Sec-Treasurer
NICK MARKOV, Vice-President — JACK OLNEY, Gov. Board Representative

THIS year the High Sophomores have taken an active part in the various school activities. We have been well represented in athletics. There are several High Sophomores in both the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs; and we hope to be well represented in the operetta. We played an important part in the Junior Carnival. Bernice Bernard and Elda Fredrickson have placed their names on the Honor Roll.

We have enjoyed our class parties very much and are looking forward to more of them, as well as to a class picnic, which we plan to have on April thirtieth.

SHIRLEY HUFF, '29.

WILLIAM LAUGHLIN, President — PATIENCE DAY, Secretary-Treasurer
DANA OLNEY, Vice-President — OWENS MINTON, Gov. Board Rep.

At last we are Sophomores! As High Freshmen and Low Sophomores we have had a wonderful school year. We have tried to do our bit to help the general welfare of the school. In Boys' Athletics we are represented by Lyle Miller, Owens Minton, Richard Pyle, Sigurd Ericksen and Will Laughlin. Our girls have made a fine showing in athletics. Doris de Curtoni and Margaret Castle helped make a basketball team that defeated every class but the Seniors. The Sophomore girls have a very promising baseball team. There are five members of our class in the advanced orchestra and six in the beginners' orchestra. When the P. T. A. offered a prize for membership, of course our class won the first prize. Although there are only eighteen members in our class, we were represented in four shows of the Junior Carnival. We have had two parties that were very enjoyable, and we hope to have several picnics. Our class has one of the highest percentages of members in the Scholarship Society. We hope to have more next year.

KEITH KUNZE, '29½.

Freshmen

WILLIAM BRATT, President
CHARLES BUBB, Vice-President
CONSTANCE KUNZE, Secretary-Treasurer
PETER LUSICH, Yell Leader

THE FRESHMEN were just getting acquainted with the High School, when thirty more students from the Grammar School entered. The Grammar School not having room enough for the High Eighth Grade, the class came over to be full-fledged Freshmen. For a while there were one hundred and six of us, but since the new semester made twenty of us Sophomores, we are now eighty-six in number.

The Upper-Classmen gave the Freshmen an Initiation Party on October 21, for which all masqueraded to represent some advertisement. After playing games, the Freshmen were taken on the stage and initiated by the Sophomores.

On Student Body Night, the Freshmen acted the short pantomime, "Ten Minutes in a Mother Goose Toy Shop."

On January 14, some of us held a party with the High Freshman Class. A week later the rest of us enjoyed a similar good time. Both of these parties were made especially delightful by the assistance of a committee of the mothers of the class.

"The Magician," our side show in the Junior Carnival, proved to be one of the main attractions of the evening.

The Freshman Girls' Basket Ball Team ranked third in the interclass games. The girls on the team were among the guests at a delightful party given by the Junior Team on March 4.

Five Freshmen appear on the Honor Roll and nine were admitted to the Scholarship Society.

Miss Arata and Mr. Goulet, our class advisors, have helped to hold the Freshman spirit and enthusiasm. In behalf of the Freshman Class, I take this opportunity to express our appreciation.

Governing Board

THE Governing Board met several times to adopt a new Constitution for the Student Body, since the one under which it was functioning was not considered satisfactory. The Constitution that was passed by the Governing Board and adopted by the Student Body was submitted by Mr. Goulet, the faculty advisor. It changes the name of the Governing Board to that of Executive Council and provides that each class shall be represented in it by its class president instead of a specially elected officer. The new Constitution also settles very satisfactorily for all concerned, the old question of blocks and letters for boy and girl athletes.

Those on the Governing Board are:

EDWIN BEARDSLEE ..... President
JACK BURKE ..... Vice-President
MURIEL CLARK ..... Secretary
DONALD PIHL ..... Treasurer
DOLORES COLLETT ..... Commissioner of Literary Activities
READA PICKERING ..... Commissioner of Social Activities
WALLACE SOHLER ..... Commissioner of Boys' Athletics
EDWINA MEAD ..... Commissioner of Girls' Athletics
MELVIN MCINTYRE ..... Sergeant-at-Arms
ROBERT BRINTON ..... Reporter
TED HENDERSON ..... Senior Representative
CLARK ELLSWORTH ..... High Junior Representative
PERRY MCPHEETERS ..... Low Junior Representative
JACK OLNEY ..... High Sophomore Representative
OWENS MINTON ..... Low Sophomore Representative

Boys' League

JOHN LAZNIBAT, President

FRED CHAPPELL, Secretary

THE BOYS' LEAGUE, although it just started this year, made a very fine beginning. It was very fortunate in securing Mr. Rogers, Principal of the Montezuma School for Boys, to speak before the Student Body.

The League took charge of the ushering at the Christmas Community Program, the Senior Play, and "Old Lady 31."

Under the able direction of Ted Henderson, chairman of the Program Committee, a very entertaining program, consisting of harmonica, vocal, and saxaphone solos, was given before the Student Body.

A committee, with Herbert Moore as chairman, was appointed to keep up the athletic field, paint the grandstand, and do other similar work.

At the League meetings very interesting talks on good sportsmanship, athletic work, etc., were given by Mr. Otto, Mr. Goulet, Mr. Aitken, and Mr. Grubb.

A clean-up morning, with a track meet in the afternoon, was carried on at school under the auspices of the League.

It is hoped that next year the League will keep up its good work.

Girls' League

JANE WOODWORTH, President FRANCES TRIMBLE, Secretary
EVELYN NIELSON, Treasurer

THE GIRLS' LEAGUE, under the able direction of her officers, kept up the good work of other years. Jane Woodworth, the Vice-President, became President when Reada Pickering left school.

The Introduction Committee introduced the new girls to the other girls and saw that they were acquainted with the program of the school.

The Social Committee had charge of the Girls' League show in the Junior Carnival and the dinner given to the Athletic Boys in the Spring of the year.

The Entertainment Committee had charge of the Christmas Program and the programs given at the various League meetings. A part of the Christmas Program was the one-act play, "Why the Chimes Rang." Through its presentation an artistic Gothic window, made by the shop and art departments, and a goodly number of usable costumes and properties form a valuable beginning of self-acquired properties and costumes in our school.

Jane Woodworth and Evelyn Nielson were the delegates to the Girls' League Convention at Piedmont High. They reported to the League that they had a very enjoyable as well as beneficial day. Among other things, they reported that in some schools the girls had asked certain boys to come in and give their ideas of an ideal girl. The girls thought this a rather good thing to do so they asked Donald Pihl to speak to them on his idea of an ideal girl. Needless to say, Donald's talk was very interesting.

The League considered itself very fortunate in securing Miss Mary Steward to speak before the school assembly. Miss Steward has traveled a great deal; and her talk, "Neighboring with a Mohammedan Priest," was splendid.

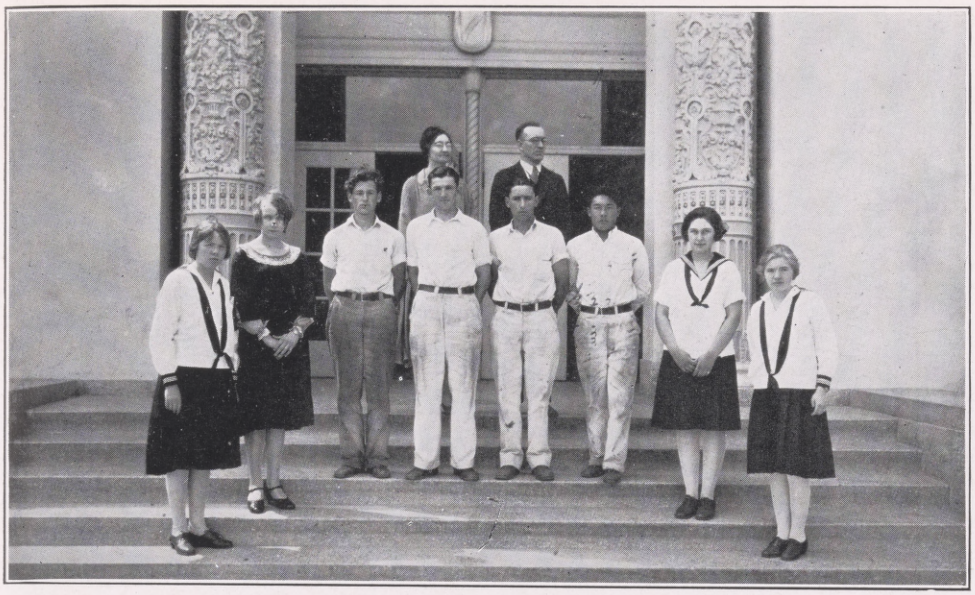
This has been the first year during which the girls have worn the uniform dress adopted last Spring. Very few of the girls regret that they adopted this uniform, because of its looks and suitability for a high school girl.

The League adopted its code this year. Two codes were submitted by the Committee, the one decided upon being written by Virginia Camp.

"OUR CREED"

We shall strive to be ever truthful,
To be loyal, sincere, and kind;
We shall strive to treasure high ideals,
To be pure in soul and mind.
May we ever thoughtful be
Of others in life's way,
A word, a smile, a pleasant deed
Will brighten up the day.
May our lives grow pure and bright,
May we keep our minds aglow;
Let each one be a shining light
As on through life we go.

MURIEL CLARK, '27.



Hi-Y

FRED CHAPPELL, President — HENRY KIYOMURA, Secretary
NICK MARKOV, Vice-President — TED HENDERSON, Treasurer

ON SEPTEMBER 20, 1926, the first meeting of the year was held, with about nineteen old members present. Mr. Aitken was given charge of the club and it has had a very successful year.

The most important act of the Hi-Y this year was to donate $50.00 to help Santa Clara County support Fred Shipp as a Y. M. C. A. Secretary in Korea. The Club has been successful in almost every undertaking. A successful war was waged against smoking on school premises. An operetta was presented by the Club, which gave the members a reputation as actors and singers, as well as a replenished treasury. The Hi-Y booth in the Junior Carnival tied for first place in the percent of profit, netting $11.95. As a contribution to the assemblies the Hi-Y secured Mr. Chandler, of San Jose, to speak to the Student Body. Later Mr. Chandler visited the Club. An ice cream and cake banquet was planned in honor of Mr. Chandler and several boys who were invited to visit the Club. The last Program of the organization was a larger banquet in honor of the Fathers and Mothers of the members.

Campfire Girls

MORE high school girls have shown an interest in the Campfire Girls this year, and its membership has increased until it has almost reached the maximum. The meetings were held at the home of Mrs. Aitken, our guardian, every Monday evening. In the Junior Carnival, the girls had a fortune telling booth which attracted many who were curious to know their future. The girls also gave a program before the Student Body in April. They have had a few swimming parties and two food sales, and plans are now being discussed to present a Campfire play sometime in the near future. Their President, Claire Dale, and the other members prophesy that the coming year will be even more full of activities and fun than this year.

Scholarship Society

FRANCES TRIMBLE, President
EDNA PELL, Vice-President
HELEN NORMAN, Secretary
ALICE MANLOVE, Treasurer
JANE WOODWORTH, Parliamentarian

THE CONSTITUTION of the California Scholarship Federation says that the purpose of the Society is "to foster a high standard of Scholarship and general attainment" in high school students.

This year the Society has also had for its purpose the development of a bond of fellowship between itself and the Student Body by making its Society attractive and by having a few delightful social times. It has also tried to exemplify its motto, "Scholarship for Service," by doing its share in the programs and social events of the year.

When its turn came to give a program before the assembly, a delightful, humorous skit entitled "Buying Culture" was chosen in which Elda Frederickson, Evelyn Williams, and Jack Burke took part.

At the afternoon party in February, a very pleasant time was enjoyed. A modernized spelling match, in which the members used their feet, somewhat, was one of the features of the party.

A certain day in March was a red letter day for nine members of the Society. On that day Professor Seward of Stanford University spoke on "The Phi Betta Kappa," a national university honor society, in which the Scholarship members are very much interested. The nine members—Frances Trimble, Edna Pell, Jane Woodworth, Ruth Pell, Marian Spaan, Muriel Clark, Donald Pihl, Leon Scharman, and Conrad Kunze—were presented with life-membership pins. The pins showed that these members had belonged to the Scholarship Society for two-thirds of their high school life (one semester being in the Senior year).

The First of April Banquet was enjoyed by all present. The trumpet march, the bright green candles, golden poppies, and brilliant caps which decorated the tables, the many little surprises which were not on the program, the presentation of the newly framed Charter of the Society by the Freshman Class, and the gavel to the President, as well as the formal program and the Scholarship songs, made the occasion one of joy to all, and one to be long remembered. Another factor for its success was its being under the direction of Miss Coleman; and then again, think who were the guests. The formal program was as follows:

Trumpet Call ..... Charles Bubb
Invocation ..... Rev. Wm. Spaan
America the Beautiful
Welcome ..... Frances Trimble
Response ..... Mrs. R. W. Leslie
Scholarship Song
Autobiography ..... Evelyn Williams
Trumpet Solo
"O Promise Me," ..... Loyd Edwards
The Scholarship Society ... Mr. C. Awalt
"Dainty Butterfly" ..... The Trio
"Spring Song" ..... Claire Dale
Wisdom of Song ... Mrs. Barto Molineux
Scholarship for Service .... Donald Pihl
"Goin' Home" ..... Henry Kiyomura

At the Student Convention in Fresno, in April, Frances Trimble, Jane Woodworth, and Miss Coleman represented Chapter 82. The girls and Miss Coleman reported that they had a very fine time and hoped that next year more delegates would be able to represent their Chapter at the convention, which will be nearer home.

Although the Scholarship Society has tried to do a great deal this year in gaining knowledge of its organization and living up to its motto, its members all hope that next year they will be able to do much more, and plans are already under way for this to be accomplished.

Editorial

WITH the arrival of another June, again a Senior Class leaves the halls of our beloved Mountain View High School. This year not only does the Class depart but also the "Blue and Gray," our Annual. In doing away with the Annual the Mountain View High School is acting in accordance with the wishes of the school authorities, who have declared that the money necessary to publish the year books might be spent more profitably in the interests of more students.

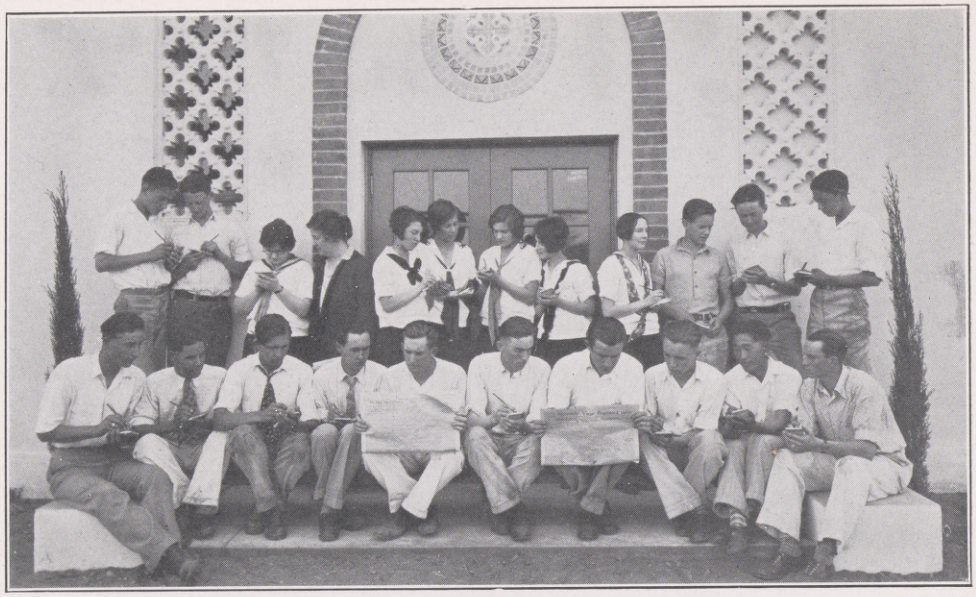
When the Class of '27 undertook the publication of the final issue of the "Blue and Gray," it was with the understanding that there was to be no soliciting for advertisements. As the Annual funds had to be derived from another source, a Finance Committee was appointed which worked with the Business Manager in making out a budget.

The Alumni, upon hearing that this year's "Blue and Gray" was to be the last, gave a benefit dance which proved to be a splendid success. At this time the Seniors wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the Alumni for their financial aid, which helped make our Annual possible.

It has always been the aim of every Annual Staff to publish the best Year Book in the history of the High School. Whether or not the Staff of 1927 has reached this goal can be decided only by the readers. Perhaps there will be some who will say that our book is too thin, but we have endeavored to make our Annual one of quality, not quantity. It may probably be noticed that all the Senior write-ups have been omitted with the exception of the Horoscope. This is due to the fact that all the other features of the Senior Class were given on Class Night, which is a new addition to the social life of the school. Cartoons have also been eliminated, as we feel that they are not truly representative of the year's activities.

We believe that the success of the Annual is due to the kindly guidance and cooperation of Miss Louise G. Schmidt, our faculty advisor, and also to Mrs. B. Molineux, whose artistic ideas make our book so attractive.

THE EDITOR.



The Observer

"SED AND DUN," the official school newspaper, edited by an especially elected staff heretofore, was succeeded this year by "The Observer," edited by a regular English Class open to Juniors and Seniors, under the general direction of Mrs. Barto Molineux.

Of such real value was Journalism considered to the average student, that it was thought best to open this field of endeavor to more than the previously selected few. Many students entered the class with no preconceived notion of becoming great authors, or even of following Journalistic work to any great extent, but merely because they realized their great need of a writing course and because they recognized in Journalism an opening to perhaps greater fields of endeavor than were possible in any other line of work. A number of these have discovered in themselves a latent power greater than they had hoped for.

Instead of having an Editor-in-chief who shouldered all responsibility, the class was divided, with Harry Loomis and Wallace Sohler leaders for each group. A list of all topics of interest was posted with a student's name from each division opposite, on a revolving wheel. A revolution of the wheel every two weeks has distributed the different kinds of material so that each student has had a broader field of experience. It has opened the eyes of these young writers to all phases of school life instead of allowing them to narrow themselves to one line of interest.

"The Observer," with its slogan, "Mountain View Moves," has been a real job, a real responsibility which the students have handled most creditably. It has been an organ through which the school could express itself, a means by which the community at large could be brought in closer contact. Its aim has been to give not only practicable knowledge to the student, but also reliable information on all subjects to those interested. It has endeavored to tighten the bond between student and Alumni, student and adult, which unifies and helps build up a community.

Debating

THIS year the school joined the Peninsula Debating League and the members of the Public Speaking Class, under their teacher, Mrs. Gordon, took part in the debates.

The first debate, held on February 17, was between Palo Alto and Mountain View, at Mountain View, and Los Gatos and Mountain View, at Los Gatos. The question was: Resolved that the Policies of Mussolini are to the Best Interests of the Italian People. The affirmative team was Claire Dale and Milton Potter and the Chairman, Ted Henderson. The negative team was Helen Norman and Virginia Camp. Jean Levin and Ted Henderson worked as alternates. Mountain View won both the affirmative and the negative sides of the question with a decision of 2 to 1 in each case.

The other debate was held on April 21, between Santa Cruz and Mountain View, and the University of Santa Clara High School, at Santa Clara. The question was: Resolved that the United States Should Cancel the War Debts Contracted by the Allied Governments. The affirmative team was Helen Norman and Milton Potter and the Chairman, Claire Dale. The negative team was Virginia Camp and Ted Henderson. Horace Laughlin worked as alternate.

The Mountain View teams lost in this debate, the decision being for the negative at Mountain View and for the affirmative at Santa Clara as follows: Santa Cruz 2; Mountain View 1; University of Santa Clara High School 3; Mountain View 0.

The debates were all very interesting as well as beneficial to the audience and to the debaters, and everyone is looking forward to the debates in the coming year.

Student Body Night

Student Body Night was held this year on Wednesday evening, November 17, 1926. Each class contribution to the program was in the hands of a faculty advisor and a committee of that class. In addition to the class numbers there were also numbers from the Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Mollé; from the Public Speaking Class, under the direction of Mrs. Gordon; and from the Hi-Y Boys, under the direction of Mr. Aitken.

FOOTBALL

THE football season at Mountain View started with a large turnout of enthusiastic gridders, including several veterans of last year and a number of new men. We had a most unusual season, it being the first time in our football history that we were unable to cross the enemies' goal. Strange as it may seem, the majority of the games played were a 0 to 0 tie. The reason for this is largely due to the inexperience of many of the players. These boys will have more experience next year, and Coach Grubb will have some promising material to refill the vacancies that will be made by the graduation of many of our stars.

Our first game of the year was a practice game with our dear old rival, South S. F. Coach Hunter, formerly a coach of Mountain View, and his huskies came down here to win an easy victory, but after a long and weary battle, we had the satisfaction of holding them down to a 0 to 0 tie. We then journeyed to Watsonville to be defeated in another practice game to the tune of 26 to 0. That game showed us our weak points, and after much revision of the team, Coach Grubb formed a combination that was hard to beat. The next practice game was played at Palo Alto with the Palo Alto second team, which resulted in a 0 to 0 tie.

The opening game of the P. A. L. schedule was with Gilroy, on our own grounds. In a spectacular contest, Gilroy managed to edge over a lone touchdown and won the game by a 6 to 0 score. The next game, which was also on our home field, with Santa Clara, ended in a 0 to 0 tie. Then we went to Los Gatos. We again succeeded in holding the score to 0 to 0. Owing to many faulty "breaks" in the next game, we were unable to score against Fremont, and again the score stood 0 to 0. Mountain View should have won by at least a 7 to 0 victory. Our last game of the year was with the Alumni, on Armistice Day, in which we were defeated in a most exciting contest by the score of 6 to 0. This Grid clash was a real battle from start to finish.

Our defense throughout the year was exceptionally good, especially with "Fat" Rice and "Cow" Anderson's weight to back the team; but on the offense we lacked the famous "Mountain View Punch" that has won many a game in the past.

We will lose an excellent captain and player this year when we lose Donald Pihl by graduation. He played a splendid game of football throughout the season, and if it had not been for his good judgment, we might have lost more games than we did.

The following boys composed the squad: Captain Pihl, center. Rice, Beardslee, Carroll, Pyle, Ellsworth, and Campbell, guards. Brinton, Awalt, Hart, and Spencer, tackles. Bakotich, Janovich, Berta, and H. Moore, ends. Parnow, F. Chappell, and L. Chappell, quarterbacks. Kiyomura, Henderson, Bratt, Nunes, Cardoza, and Levin, halfbacks. Anderson and Lusich, fullbacks.

BASKETBALL

The basketball season opened with a large turnout of potential cage artists at Mountain View. The unlimited team, captained by Bakotich, showed up well this year by taking second place in the league. They were defeated only twice throughout the entire season, both times by Santa Clara.

Each position was well filled, and we will greatly miss Captain Bakotich, Henderson, Pihl, Berta, Anderson, Brinton, and Awalt on our next year's team, because of graduation. But Coach Grubb still has several stars left, namely, Sohler, Janovich, Mockbee, Laznibat, Moore, and Bratt, on whom he can build another good team for next year.

Captain Bakotich, Sohler, Janovich, Mockbee, and Berta were exceptionally good in shooting baskets and were responsible for most of the points.

The following boys composed the team: Captain Bakotich, Sohler, Janovich, and Awalt; forwards. Mockbee, Moore, and Brinton; centers. Laznibat, Henderson, Berta, Pihl, Anderson, and Bratt; guards.

130 BASKETBALL

The Mountain View babes did not do so well as might be expected this year; nevertheless, they deserve credit for their good playing. There were several men out for each position, which kept up keen competition among the players for the first string berth, and resulted in a good team. Practically all of the boys out participated in the league games.

Captain Markov played good defensive ball throughout the season and showed up well in breaking up the opponents' passwork.

Rachford and Neuroth, forwards, played exceptionally well on the offense and are responsible for most of the scores.

The following boys composed the team: Captain Markov, P. Laznibat, Chappell, and Scilla; guards Rahe and Theuson, centers. Rachford, Neuroth, Chappell, Vincent, Campbell, and de Curtoni, forwards.

The scores were as follows:

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

UNDER the excellent supervision of our coach, Miss Tuft, the girls of the various classes made an extremely good showing, considering the amount of new material we had this year. The captains of the various teams were picked from the girls who were eligible to play, the captain of the Freshman team being Hazel Muller; of the Sophomore team, Nellie Janovich; of the Junior team, Claire Jelavich; and of the Senior team, Edwina Mead. After a few weeks of good practice, Miss Tuft arranged an inter-class schedule, as inter-scholastic games are forbidden in the G. P. A. L. The games took place according to the following schedule:

Seniors 9	vs.	Sophomores 11	Seniors 12	vs.	Freshmen 4
Seniors 20		Freshmen 6	Seniors 16		Juniors 13
Juniors 11		Sophomores 27	Seniors 16		Freshmen 17
Sophomores 27		Freshmen 5	Seniors 18		Sophomores 16
Sophomores 12		Juniors 10	Seniors 21		Sophomores 19
Seniors 9		Sophomores 10

The Seniors came out with the winning score of the season, having won the majority of their games. The Sophomores gave the Seniors a very close race for the school championship, however, and it was only by hard playing and constant practice that the Seniors were able to succeed.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

The baseball season for the inter-class baseball games started out with a lively game, between the Sophomores and Freshmen, the Sophomores winning by one point, with the final score 10 to 11. We have some good players this year and with the help of our coach and the co-operation of the girls, we expect to have a series of unusually good games. The girls chosen for captains of the various teams are: the Freshman team, Ruth Raymond; the Sophomore team, Nellie Janovich; the Junior team, Claire Jelavich; and the Senior team, Edwina Mead. The inter-class baseball schedule as arranged by our coach, Miss Tuft, is as follows:

Sophomores 10	vs.	Freshmen 9	Juniors 14	vs.	Sophomores 17

Celeste: Do you play on the piano?
Henderson: I used to, but my mother made me stop.
Celeste: Why?
Henderson: She was afraid I'd fall off.

Mr. Aitken (making Physics assignment): Tomorrow start with lightning and go to thunder.

Miss Arata: Why did Caesar want to die with his boots on?
Bright Frosh: So he wouldn't stub his toe when he kicked the bucket.

Jim B.: What's the date?
Mrs. Gordon: Never mind the date, the examination is the most important thing.
Jim B.: Yes, I know, but I want to get something right.

Al: I went to the show last night and saw "The Potters." Did you ever see them, Milt?
Milt Potter: Huh, I see them every day.

Alice Carey went into a store and picked up an article, walked out with it, and told the clerk to charge it.
"On what account?" called the clerk.
"On account of not having any money with me."

Miss Arata: Take this sentence, "Lead the cow out of the lot." What mood?
Billy B.: The cow.

Mr. Aitken: How many natural magnets do you know?
Cow A.: Two.
Mr. Aitken: Will you please name them?
Cow A.: Blondes and Brunettes.

Junior: How far are you in Economics?
Senior: In the last stages of "Consumption."

Miss Tuft: So the whole party was executed.
Cow A.: Are they dead?

Alice M.: How is it your folks call you "Bill"?
Bill B.: Because I was born on the first of the month.

Mrs. Gordon: Vincent, will you please give me an example of an interrogative pronoun?
Vincent (who had been asleep): What?
Mrs. Gordon: Correct.

Miss Tuft: Are you the oldest in the family, Bob?
Awalt: Nope, father and mother are both older.

Berta: They say a student should have eight hours of sleep a day.
Carrol: Aw, who wants to take eight classes a day?

Helen Civelli: Buy a seal for the benefit of the Red Cross?
Mr. Saunders: Very worthy organization, but I cannot afford it.
Helen Civelli: Buy just one please.
Mr. Saunders: If I bought one I couldn't feed it.

Talking about embarrassing moments, we wonder how Mr. Wilder felt when, after buying some meat down town, he discovered that he had only a fifty-cent piece with him, and the butcher after receiving it, said it was counterfeit.

Miss Schmidt: Chester, can you give me a sentence with the word "disguise" in it?
Maccono: "Dis guy's" got my paper.

Miss Tuft: Frank, where is Mexico?
Frank M.: On page 245, Miss Tuft.

Berta: "Cow" sure is heavy on his feet.
Moore: Mine too.

First Junior: Gee, I saw you look at Irene's paper three times this morning, how come?
Second Junior: Well, she doesn't write any too plainly.

Mr. Aitken: Define the word "biology."
Clem W.: The science of shopping.

Iva J.: May I borrow your gray tie?
Pete J.: All right, but what made you ask this time?
Iva J.: I can't find it.

Mr. Otto (in Algebra): What does x always equal?
Chick T.: An Ex always means another flunk for me.

SENIOR PRAYER

Now I lay me down to rest
Before I take tomorrow's test;
If I should die before I wake,
Thank Heaven, I'll have no test to take.

Parnow: I can't sleep when I drink coffee.
Rahe: That's funny, I'm just the opposite; I can't drink coffee while I sleep.

Mrs. Gordon: Now let's see, who'll I call on first? I guess it will be you, Horace.
Horace L.: Do you really mean it?

Miss Coleman: Is there any difference between addition and subtraction?
Alice M.: Sum.

Mrs. Gordon: Well, Bob, have you figured out your grade yet?
Bob B.: No. What's this figuring down here in the corner?
Mrs. Gordon: Oh, that doesn't mean anything; that's only my mental arithmetic.

Potter: Lived here all your life?
C. Dale: Don't know, haven't died yet.

Mrs. Gordon: Ted, is that all the Spanish you can do in an hour?
Ted H.: Maybe I could do more, but I never like to show off.

Melvin M.: Could you please tell me what Roman numerals are?
Loomis: Oh sure, Melvin, they're athletic awards given by the University of Rome.

Miss Tuft: Chester, can you name a city in Alaska?
Maccono: No m'm.
Miss Tuft: Correct.

Kenna V.: I want to buy a pencil.
Fred C.: Hard or soft?
K. V.: Hard, it's gonna be a stiff exam.

Mr. Otto's motto—Absence makes the grades grow lower.

Harry L. (in History): He was a man; I forgot his name, and he fought in the battle of; I can't pronounce it, defeated somebody; I don't know who, in the year of; oh, I've forgotten that too.

Ted B.: Melvin ought to be a farmer when he grows up.
Jim B.: Aw, the only thing he could raise would be a beard.

Rachford: How far off were you from the right answer?
Tsuruda: About four seats.

Mr. Aitken: And so we will have the test first thing in the morning.
Doug Chick (coming in late): Oh, er, ah—Good morning.

Miss Schmidt: Why isn't there a comma between "boy and girl" in this sentence?
Ted B.: Because they usually go together.

Melvin: Could you please tell me how iron was discovered?
Bellew: I heard my dad say they smelt it.
